APPENDIX.

Rules to regulate the award of a Mining Scholarship at the Indian School of Mines, Dhanbad.

1. One scholarship will be awarded to a Mysorean who wishes to take a course of training in Coal Mining, Metalliferous Mining and Geology.

2. The value of the scholarship will be Rs. 60 per mensem for all the 12 months of each year of the period of training and it will be payable while the scholar is at work and for vacations; and during short authorised periods of leave.

3. The Scholarship will ordinarily be tenable for three years. On the satisfactory completion of the 3 years' course, the scholarship may, however, be extended by another year for obtaining the Diploma of Associateship in Mining, Engineering and Geology, on the recommendation of the Governing Body of the School and of the Director of Geology, Mysore Government.

4. Payment on account of the scholarship shall begin from the date on which the scholar joins the school.

5. The Director of Geology will invite applications from candidates who, being Mysoreans, have passed the B.Sc., or B.E., Examination of the Mysore University. Candidates may be required to note in their applications if they have undergone post-graduate training or have graduated with honours. The applications will be considered by a Committee consisting of the Director of Geology, Professor of Geology, Central College; Principal, College of Engineering, and the Chief Inspector of Mines. The Committee of which, the Director of Geology will be the Chairman, will forward the applications to Government with their recommendation as to which applicant is best qualified for being selected to undergo training.

6. The candidate selected will be required to pass the entrance examination of the School before admission thereto.

7. The scholar must reside in the hostel attached to the School and must abide by the rules and regulations prescribed by the Governing Body of the School.

8. The scholar will not be guaranteed any appointment under the Government, but will be required to enter into an agreement to serve the Government on completion of his training, should they desire to employ him within a reasonable time.
